S3 Method discovery and classification

Original software landscape and a separate bibliographic completeness audit

SEPTEMBER 2026 · ORIGINAL SEARCH AND SCREENING

Search strategy
18 + 5
initial + high-recall query families

→

Database retrieval 116,556
source-query records

→

Deduplicated
79,917
database records

→

Review universe
12,162
12,156 new + 6 carried forward

Citation discovery: 8 source-verified starting anchors; initial bidirectional wave completed 23 September

Initial classification

Original result freeze
247 assessed
218 retained

→ + 4 methods

7 October source audit
251 assessed
222 retained

Post-audit retained
3 direct
27 near-direct
192 supporting

The original 247-identity freeze is unchanged. Classification does not confer benchmark eligibility.

OCTOBER 2026 · SEPARATE BLIND-SAFE EVIDENCE AUDIT

Different source population — not added to the original method counts

Backlog
77,967
publication candidates

→

Eligible
71,009
exact-ID requests

→

Recovery
5,173
metadata / abstract gaps

INDEPENDENT SCOPE REVIEW

Prioritised methods
48 families
from 1,881 scoped records

Units differ across lanes: records, request identities and method identities must not be summed.

Source: frozen Experiment 07 result, post-freeze audit and separately versioned reconciliation.